(S)election Day - Breeders Cup

Handicapping Event

Hosted by Don Knobel of 'Down the Stretch'
Tuesday 7:00 - 9:00pm

Tuesday is Election Day.....So after voting for your public servants, come out to Big Blue Country and get some valuable information to help you make your selections for Breeders Cup this weekend.

Don Knobel, local handicapper who is the host of "Down the Stretch" weekly radio show on WKRD 790 am/101.3fm on Saturday mornings, will host the event. He'll have some great guests including Mike Hartnett of WAVE-TV and Peter Rotondo who is the Vice President of Media and Entertainment for the Breeders Cup. They'll be sharing some valuable information and have lots of interaction with the audience.

We'll have door prizes including tickets to UK basketball and tickets to the Breeders Cup. We'll be serving some great food and drinks including a special "Down the Stretch" burger made to Don Knobel's specifications.

Come out and get the experts' picks and enjoy the FREE show.

Tip-off the Basketball Season - Monday

Well it is finally here.....Basketball season in the Bluegrass!

Come out and celebrate the start of another great season this Monday when the Cats take on Pikeville in the first game of the season. We'll have the usual drink specials and electric atmosphere including UK band music and CATS cheers. And half the fun is discussing the players' performance and the prospects for the season with all your UK peers at Big Blue Country.
Game time is 7:00pm.

FREE ENES Celebration

Mark your calendar now...(Oh wait, we don't know when it will happen).....So make this mental note: The day the NCAA Frees Enes, we'll be having a party at Big Blue Country.

So as the stock will rise on the current UK basketball season, the prices will fall at Big Blue Country with some specials on food and VERY AGGRESSIVE drink prices. So get ready.....It might be today, it might be tomorrow, it might be in a month, but whenever the NCAA gets off it's a and makes a decision (in his favor!) we'll be hosting a party.

UK Basketball AND fabulous Bluegrass Music! - Friday

On Friday we're hosting a double header!

At 7:00pm we'll be hosting our second UK basketball game watch party of the season when UK takes on Dillard. It should be a fun and relaxing way to spend a Friday evening with your UK buddies (does that sound overconfident?!).

Then following the game, you'll be able to continue to relax and listen to the fabulous bluegrass music of the Whiskey Bent Valley Boys. The Whiskey Bent guys are making their second appearance at Big Blue Country after a fabulous show back in June. What a great way to spend a Friday evening!

UK Networking with Dicky Beal - November 15

Put this date, November 15, on your calendar now to come in to Big Blue Country for the monthly networking event provided by the Greater Louisville Chapter of the UK Alumni Association.

This month's special guest is Dicky Beal, star guard for UK from 1980-84 (1984 NCAA Regional Most Outstanding Player). Dicky will meet attendees and discuss networking in general and using your UK connections to network.

The event will begin at 5:30pm.
