UK Star Quality Comes to Big Blue Country!

The Jazmine Brooke Band will be playing at Big Blue Country this Friday!!! UK sophomore Jazmine Brooke, will bring her band to Louisville for a rare unplugged appearance in this area. You are much more likely to see Jazmine play at the World Famous Tootsie's Orchid Lounge (an early hangout of Kris Kristofferson, Faron Young, Willie Nelson, Tom T. Hall, Hank Cochran, Mel Tillis, Roger Miller, Waylon Jennings, Patsy Cline among others) or Rippy's in Nashville Tennessee where she plays regularly.

You may remember seeing Jazmine open for Nashville recording artist, Joe Nichols at the Derby Fest-a-Ville in 2007 or at the 2007 Kentucky State Fair. Jazmine, now 19 years old, has been singing since she was 13 and was invited to be part of the Young Guns of Country music show at Tootsie's in 2008.

If you are a UK fan, you might have seen Jazmine at Tootsie's performing for a pre-party for the Music City Bowl Game last year or at Rippy's for the SEC Tournament this year. Jazmine is now home from UK for the summer (living in Frankfort) and is traveling to Louisville to gain some additional exposure and reunite with many of the UK fans and music fans that live in Louisville. Be sure to clear your Friday schedule to join your friends at Big Blue Country for this special appearance! The show starts at 8:30PM on Friday.

MLS All-Star Game- Wednesday

As the new official home of the Louisville Chapter of the American Outlaws, Big Blue Country is excited to have another prime soccer event to showcase on our 120" Hi Definition televisions --- the MLS All Star Game. The 23 man MLS All-Star team will battle Manchester United starting at 8:30PM.

We will have our usual game drink specials for all you die-hard soccer fans. Get yourself out-of-the-house and join some friends to enjoy this summer soccer highlight at Big Blue Country.

Now Serving Jockomo's Pizza (and Breadsticks!)

Big Blue Country is now serving Jockomo's Pizza, a Louisville mainstay for over 20 years. Big Blue Country's chef, Francie (Prestigiacomio) Wilder, is excited to now finally have the equipment to serve her specialty items at Big Blue Country. Come try one of her famous pizzas, whether with the traditional toppings or one of the specialty pizzas such as the Sloppy Joe B. Hall or the Buffalo Chicken Pizza. And you just gotta try the breadsticks including the traditional garlic & butter or the cinnamon sticks or the chocolate s'mores.

Football is Coming - Mark Your Calendars Now!

Football will be here before you know it and we are planning some fun times at Big Blue Country this fall. Be sure to keep your schedule clear for Friday evening, September 3. We will be kicking-off the season with a bang. More details will be forthcoming.

Thursday Trivia - New Format - Win UK/UL Tickets

Our trivia nights have always featured trivia about UK sports....and that has been a unique feature that many of our participants love. But we now have tweaked our format to appeal to everyone by presenting all questions in pairs - a random trivia question paired with a UK sports trivia question. Participants get to choose which question to answer each time giving UK sports nuts and "normal" people both an equal shot at answering correctly. Our trivia nights are a blast and you can win prizes each week and have a shot at winning a pair to tickets to the UK-UL football game on September 4. The fun starts at 7:00PM.
