Dear Annie

Here is what's happening at Big Blue Country:

Live Radio Broadcast Remote with KSR's Matt Jones

Tuesday evening (May 18) Matt Jones with KentuckySportsRadio.com will be hosting the new Wazoo Sports Buzz show broadcasting live from Big Blue Country. Jones will team up with Greg Brohm to discuss UK, UL and any other sports topics that come up (but come-on, with all the interesting things swirling about UK, and with the broadcast location at Big Blue Country with host Matt Jones, let's make sure the topic of choice is almost all-UK). The new Wazoo Sports Buzz show started on May 3 and broadcasts weekdays from 6PM-7PM on Power 1350AM and the hosts include Chip Cosby, Greg Brohm and Matt Jones. Come on out Tuesday evening to meet Matt Jones and ask some questions live. We will be offering $10 domestic beer buckets, $3 John Wall shots (excuse us.....make that B-Knight shots) and some food specials on wings and BleuCheeseburgers. Come out and join Matt Jones and company for all the fun of discussing UK sports.

Thursday Trivia

We are moving Tuesday Trivia to Thursday.....Same starting time at 7:00PM. Last weeks winner (Masiello's Ticket Masters) are challenging all comers. We will again have rounds of general trivia and rounds of UK Sports Trivia. Come out for some great food and drinks and spirited competition. Win or lose, you will learn a lot of important information about your favorite sports team and a lot of unimportant information about the other topics.

Kentucky Plaid

If you have visited Big Blue Country, you have noticed the official Kentucky Plaid tablecloths covering all of our tables and the Kentucky Plaid tie that our life-sized Cawood Ledford is wearing. Big Blue Country is now selling UK plaid items. The official plaid of the University of Kentucky was designed by UK students and was voted on by UK students and alumni. Purchases support UK's School of Human Environmental Sciences and the Department of Merchandising, Apparel & Textiles. If you want to purchase some tablecloths and napkins to use at home, picnics, or tailgating, or if you want to wear the tie that Coach Cal wears so proudly, stop in or give us a call at 585-BLUE.

Live Music

Mark down June 4 on your calendar to hear the hot Whiskey Bent Valley Boys at Big Blue Country. The music is upbeat and fun for all ages.
